SONSHIP OP SHOP

The Sonship Op Shop continues to receive daily donations from generous local people. The sale of these donations funds the boats and covers the wages of the engineers, captains and nurses who go to the remote islands offering free medical consultations. Many dedicated people volunteer their time at the Op Shop to sort and prepare the donations that come in for sale. Some of the areas the volunteers help with are: sorting, washing, ironing, displaying, selling, tidying and packing.
